Looking into your eyes
You always kept silent
Each time I saw you in my dream
You turned away before I could see your smile
I realized who was important to me
You always protected me, didn't you?
Through it all, gradually, you're the only one
Always call me, and I'll help you.
You're brave, you're amazing

Here, now, gently surfacing
Receive these overflowing feelings.
Even though you were often scowling,
You were always by my side.
Among my feelings
You became treasured.
I realized who my beloved was
More and more I felt in love.
Gradually, finally, you're the only one.
Always call me, because I will believe in you.
Your courage, your kindness,
Look, I'm sure this is it.
Receive these overflowing tears.
The water, the wind, the sun, the earth,
The moon, the stars, I'd give them all to you.
You're brave, you're amazing,
Here, now, gently surfacing.
Receive these overflowing feelings.
To you I give the future,
Look, here, it's sparkling.
Surrounded completely by feelings,
You're the only one.
