

Cardigans, The "Happy Meal II"

Arrange my books in order make up some nice stories to amuse you make things look smart and easy shape up the place hungry for the meeting
the dinner we'll be eating wine that we'll be drinking and kinky thoughts I'm thinking all because of you

And now I've found a partner no one can be happier than I am and now I've found a new friend no one can be happier than me prepare a meal with candles sweet wine and strings chosen from the purpose then take a bath with bubbles shape up my face eager for the meeting
