With a sampled heartbeat and a stolen soul i sold my songs to have my fortune told and it said: you should know that love will never die but see how it kills you in the blink of an eye

I know of love as a hot white light that knocks you down and then leaves you dry oh, how can it be, sweet mama tell me why why all love's disciples have to wither and die

chorus:

Please sister help me, come on, do what you should please give me something, i'm not doing so good i'm gone, done wrong, is there nothing you can say?
please sister help me i'm not feeling OK

Give me belief that my time will come and a toll-free helpline if i find someone but she said: you gave away what you never really had and now your purse is empty i can see why you're sad

chorus:

Oh, please sister help me, come on, do what you should
please give me something, i'm not doing so good
i'm gone, done wrong, is there nothing you can say? please sister help me can you make me feel OK?

So if it's true that love will never die then why do the lovers work so hard to stay alive?

please..
Please sister help me
Please give me something

Chorus:

Oh, please sister, you know i do what i can oh sweet mama, please just send me a man

'cause i'm gone, gone is there nothing you can give?
please sister help me, i just need some love to live

Just a little love to live and a little love to sing
