Uhh..huhh..uhmmm...mmmm..

Back then, I begged for you to stay
Make believe, your love was meant for me
But you left, my heart was torn in two
Now I can't believe that you want to be back.

But no one can stop me now, it's like that
This time I don't even want you back
By now you should know me better than that
I knew that someday you'd be crawling on back.

But no one can stop me now, it's like that
This time I don't even want you back
By now you should know me better than that
When I walk away I will never turn back.

(Chorus)

So you want to be back
