"Happy Modern Love"

What is wrong with myself
Everyday I think about it
Everytime I leave you're someone else so different
When I caught you there, all the tears just rolling down
Who said he'd be up all night

Go ahead and blow it away
I'm getting tired of this modern love
Let go, let go of all these fears and take a chance with me and now
Let go, let go of all these fears

What is wrong with myself
Everyday I think about it
Everytime I leave you're someone else so different
When I caught you there, all the tears just rolling down
Who said he'd be up all night

Go ahead and blow it away
I'm getting tired of this modern love
Let go, let go of all these fears and take a chance with
me and now
Let go, let go of all these fears
