Sweetheart, press your prettiest,
C'mon over here and give me a kiss,
I think I'll take you dancin' tonight.
We'll do some waltzin' and some two-steppin',
And say a fond farewell to our close friends,
Because darlin' just like we dreamed
We've got a ranch to run.
Sugarpie, check out that sky,
Look how it stretches out for miles,
Our place is just up around the double bend.
Won't you check out that big oak tree,
Ain't that a perfect branch to hang a swing,
Couple youngsters runnin' around,
Be one hell of a thing.

Ain't she good, good lookin' country,
She sure look good, good, good, good on you.
Kiss me quick, you pretty little fox,
You're everything that a man could want,
And you're good, good, good lookin' too.

Honeybear, hold it right there,
The sun's caught hold of your golden hair,
And there's a nice soft spot to put my knee.
Well, you're as fine as flowers,
I could just stare at you for hours,
And I was wonderin' if you'd wanna marry me.

Ain't she good, good lookin' country,
She sure looks good good good, good on you.
Kiss me quick, you pretty little fox,
You're everything that a man could want,
And you're good, good, good looking too.

[Musical Interlude]

Girls come kiss your daddy,
He jus fixed up an old Caddy,
And if you're good he's gonna take you for a ride.
Go tell your mama, "Come quick,"
We're all going out chasin' sunsets,

You know it's all right,
It's all right by me.

Ain't she good, good lookin' country,
She sure looks good good good, good on you.
Kiss me quick, you pretty little fox,
You're everything that a man could want,
And you're good, good, good looking too.

Ain't she good, good lookin' country,
She sure looks good good good, good on you.
Kiss me quick, you pretty little fox,
You're everything that a man could want,
And you're good, good, good looking too.
