The funny thing about us, is,
I never thought that we were suppose to be here...
I, never been the type to look back but I see your old pictures, startin' reminiscing
Remember when we were badder, we were so happy together...
You were suppose to be the bigger man for we, when did it all fall apart...
See I can't put that all on you,
I just had to have my way, never wanna change...
I'll admit that I'm a women,
I can get emotional, say things that are irrational.
No, when I didn't really mean it, it might just be too late now...
When it's early in the morning... I'm all alone then...
I find myself thinking of you.

I know, you been good for awhile, but you still on my mind...
Cause' I can't stop lovin ya'... I'm sitting here going through it now
But I'm just trying to figure it out why, why I can't stop lovin' ya.
I'm sick of going through the emotions, acting like I
don't want cha
Cause' I can't stop loving you .
Can't stop, won't stop, don't stop, no I can't stop loving
you.

I know I should've thought about it
When I let you walk out the front door,
(should've thought about it, thought about it)
I know my pride was talking too loud...
Sayin' you could roll out
Shorty you should know this is how I met you...
I hope you know that my actions don't say I don't love
you
It ain't the same, let's work it out, mend the pain, I'm broken down
Oh girl I really miss ya, all we really need a rehabilitation

No other women could replace you...
Remember to bring it back,
I think I worked out all my issues, it's the new me
And id love to introduce you .
Late at night when I'm home a lone, I remember what I had is gone
And I miss you, girl

I know, you been good for awhile, but you still on my mind...
Cause I can't stop loving you... I'm sitting here going
through it now
But I'm just trying to figure it out why, why I can't stop lovin ya.
I'm sick of going through the emotions, acting like I
don't want cha
Cause' I can't stop loving you .
Can't stop, won't stop, don't stop, no I can't stop loving
you.

I know, you been good for awhile, but you still on my mind...
Cause I can't stop loving you... I'm sitting here going
through it now
But I'm just trying to figure it out why, why I can't stop lovin ya.
I'm sick of going through the emotions, acting like I
don't want cha
Cause' I can't stop loving you .
Can't stop, won't stop, don't stop, no I can't stop loving
you.
