Yesterday I woke up alone
my whereabouts as always unknown trying to get my way back home then you came along, you came along

Suddenly I realize
I've been searching for a new paradise
But now I know here I belong
'Cause you came along, you came along

Now I know what they implied,
He girl with kaleidoscope eyes
Now I know she's alive

Cheyenne, the sun is coming up and it makes me wonder why
I am the raining cheyenne, the birds are flying 'Round and everything is fine Cheyenne, I'm changing underneath the skies

Yesterday I woke up alone
my whereabouts as always unknown
I never wrote such a happy song till you came along, you came along
