"Everything Must Go"

out of the city
driving through the countryside alongside the road there was a girl putting up a sign these are all of my possessions they are all for sale sell your car as a confession make bail

don't wait
leave it all behind
don't wait
before you change your mind
don't wait
you'll be back again but now
everything must go
everything must go

time stood still between the sofa's and the lamps our eyes fixated on a book with old post stamps i am too scared to leave my old life scared to quit the trail would you dare to leave it now and fail

don't wait
leave it all behind
don't wait
before you change your mind
don't wait
you'll be back again but now
everything must go

don't wait
grab my hand and go
don't wait
before we take the blow
don't wait
you'll be gack again but now

everything must go
(oowoho oowoho)
everything must go

(oowoho oowoho)
everything must go
(oowoho oowoho)

don't wait, don't wait, let it go
don't wait, don't wait, let it go
don't wait, don't wait, let it go

everything must go
everything must go
everything must go
(oowoho oowoho)
