My life is so ordinary
wanna be extraordinary
I have been so blind to see that I could never be, like you

but how do you do?
when something is burning up on me trying to be someone that I wish I wanted to be like well it's a strange life

when something is burning op on you such a cold truth you're someone that I know I never could be like such a strange life but it's a quite nice to be loved by you

like me, like you, like me

Like you, like me, I could never be like you you could never be like me, I could never be like you
