You're on the outside, looking in Thinking of past lives in which you've sinned
I know it's so hard to forgive
Since they've stolen the moment in which you lived

But shake it off and be brave

Cause this is your life
You try to retrieve
This is your life
If you still believe
Now is the time to face fear with fire
You'll find your dream's alive

Feelings of sorrow arrive at the gates
Ready to throw you so fight or suffocate

Many before us got lost in these games
It's the evil that men do, don't hang your head in shame

Now shake it off and be brave

Cause this is your life
You try to retrieve
This is your life
If you still believe
Now is the time to face fear with fire
You'll find your dream's alive
