Together we marched along
Rock solid or goals as we became strong

Together we took the load
Upon us to show the world the same road

Down we're we fell, no turning round
And no one to slow us down

Is it ever gonna change
Could they tear us apart
And live like strangers
I wanna know who you are

Is it ever gonna change
The greatest start, too dangerous
I wanna know whose side you're on
Whose side you're on
Together we started a riot
The greater the crowds were, the more we got tired

Together got overflowed
Still going faster on the same road

Down we're we fell, no turning round
And no one to slow us down

Is it ever gonna change
Could they tear us apart
And live like strangers
I wanna know who you are

Is it ever gonna change
The greatest start, too dangerous
I wanna know whose side you're on
Whose side you're on

Cry out, put an end to all these stories

Fight now, for the love that still remains

Cry out, hold on to new found glory

Fight now or forever feel ashamed
