I've proved myself once again
That I need you like an old friend
Sliding through the crowd
And pulling strings to track you down

You turn my life on a dime
Squeeze my heart like a lime
Why don't you break it?
Why don't you break it?

WHY DON'T YOU BREAK MY HEART NOW?

I've proved myself once again
That I am recklessly insane
Scoping for the stash
Scoring on the run

I fooled myself
The damage's done
Again my finger dialing the phone

WHY DON'T YOU BREAK MY HEART NOW?
