Don't 'spect us to think like you
Or buy into your stupid rules
Your logic only makes sense to
A bunch of jealous assholes.

You can sit around and run your mouth
'Cause you've got nothin' better to do.
If they're too blind to see through you

They're on your side so f them too.

Think twice this time before you place
These mindless lies on my friends name
Think your fake stories make you wise?
All I see are two green eyes

Both your faces have green eyes.
