(Verse 1)

Looking above the sky
There sitting my angel and cry.
I wake up in the night
Cause I can't look at his sad sight.

Why you cry this night
I said him.
Why you cry - tonight?

I don't wanna stay in this place-anymore
I'm gonna show you my world-
Look above sky
There is an angel - he cries.

(Chours)

There is my angel - he cries
I never let you get away
There is my angel - he cries
I'm gonna show you my world
The other side of my story.
