(Verse 1)

I stay here
But you are there.
Wake up alone again,
Looking for you-my love.

But when the sun goes down
My heart is still boiled up
And I can't put down
Seeking you just like that

(Chorus)

I'm coming to you
To fill my emptiness
So come back in to my life
'Cause without you it's such a mess.
I'm coming to you
I'm coming to you
If you're not here
Tomorrow never comes

(Verse 2)

Running mile after mile
To see your smile again
Tomorrow never comes
If the sun goes down

I feel every beat of your heart
Beating in mine like it's gone crazy
I run through the deserts of loneliness
But I know you're out there somewhere

(Chorus)

I'm

Coming
To you
To fill my emptiness
So come back in to my life
'Cause without you it's such a mess.

I'm coming to you
I'm coming to you
If you're not here
Tomorrow never comes

(Verse 3)

I wake up in the morning
And you're still here.
Another tomorrow
If you will, then I'll be there.

(Chours 2x)

I'm coming to you
To fill my emptiness
So come back in to my life
'Cause without you it's such a mess.
I'm coming to you
I'm coming to you
If you're not here
Tomorrow never comes

(Ending)

Running

Mile
After mile
To see your smile again
Tomorrow never comes
If the sun goes down
