"The Fallacy Of Retrospective Determinism"

Heads Bounce to a fesh pulse,
A rise up rhythm,
An uproar for reform.
The crowd roars to a fresh pulse,
I want to bring it down.
Let's bring it down.

T - 1's and Tek - 9's,
.wav files through phone lines,
I am raising my arm, come on,
I want to bring it down.
Let's bring it down.

A symphony of diodes,
Doctrines stop, subtitles cleared.
First we hit satellites,
Piece-by-piece the drive is down.

A national riot dare,
I'm calling out, this is permanent.
Take a chance with contingencies,
Please devise a requiem.
