In tiredness I've come to find
That you're not here.
So save your breath now,
We're almost there

And in tiredness I've come to find that,
You're not there
You were never there (You're not there)

Burn it to the ground now.
(We'll watch ourselves before we die)

Get back and take a seat
And watch another bleed
How you could take this life
I will never believe
Oh.

And now I see
That you are dying.
Trapped underneath the waves
I've sealed my fate.

(I've sealed my fate)

(Solo)

Can I close my eyes waiting for you?
I won't be long
Can you save me from my demise?

(Oh-oh-oh)
