"One Step"

I know you cannot see
What you do to me
But it's the same you do
To yourself

I know you really feel
Something that isn't real
You're turning down my help
You're running from yourself

You're one step
From the edge
One step before you fall
One step before you fall

I know that you believe
Only what you can see
You're so afraid
To fail again

And now you cannot leave
It's getting hard to breathe
You made your past
Your prison cell

You're one step
From the edge
One step before you fall
One step before you fall

(Instrumental)

You're one step
From the edge
One step before you fall
One step before you fall

(Repeat)
