Oh yes I know, I've made mistakes
For that I have to pay from time to time
I cannot change, what lays behind
But I can make peace with myself

Sometimes I ask for absolution
Although I know...

There is the rain that
Is coming down on us, down on us
To wash away, the sins that
Weight on us, weight on us

For only tears can bring the truth
And only tears can bring relief
Our eyes get clear, we look above
The sky is crying tears of joy

Sometimes we ask for absolution
Although we know...

There is the rain that
Is coming down on us, down on us
To wash away, the sins that
Weight on us, weight on us

Rain of innocence, come down on our skins
Come to us and make us whole again
Rain of innocence, wash away our sins
Heal the pain and make us whole again

There is the rain that
Is coming down on us, down on us
To wash away, the sins that
Weight on us, weight on us
