Tonight is the night I take myself too far
The needle, the razor, will fix my broken heart
My parents deceived me, my friends are my foes
But now I hold power; I'm strong while my blood flows

Bleeding in the bedroom, basking in the glory; you'll never hurt me again.
Staring at my body pouring with destruction; I've mastered all my pain

The blood runs in rivers all over my skin This feeling, elation, it fills me from within I know I can't go back; I've crossed that final line
But I don't care bout that; I'm feeling bloody fine

Bleeding in the bedroom, basking in the glory; you'll
never hurt me again.
Staring at my body pouring with destruction; I've
mastered all my pain
And though you try to put me down, I know your words can't hurt me now; MY PAIN IS MY ARMOUR
