I've got a message for the man that's screwin' my wife.
Wanna thank you for taking her outta my life.
You're the one that pulled us apart.
I'm happy now Lord I made a new start.
I'll gladly hand her over to you.
Trust me son, it's the least I can do.
There's a nasty rumor been goin' around.
I heard you been draggin' my dog all over town.
She's a brown eyed blonde haired four-legged girl.
I better not catch you takin' her for a whirl.
Listen here sucker this is written in stone.
You can keep my wife but leave my dog alone.
Well I took my guitar and my pickup truck.
But when I left the house I had to leave my pup.
She's the only one who was always there
She's the only one who really cared.
Listen here fellow 'fore you cross the line
Keep the bitch but the dog is mine.
(chorus)
Well I knew you two you were screwin' around.
I never really thought it meant losin' my hound.
While you was jumping from bed to bed
I's at home keepin' my poor dog fed.
I'm gonna tell you this buddy one more time.
Keep the bitch but the dog is mine.
(chorus)
