Last kiss tonight
Darlin' hold me tight
There may never be a chance like this again
You leave me now
Believing how
There's a chance we'll find each other in the end

You must fly fast and free
You must know, you must see
Where your heart belongs
And when you're nowhere else to go
You know where I'll be
You must fly
Fly home back to me

Another cliché
Don't they always say
If you love someone
Well you've got to let them go
Return in time
And you'll be mine
In my heart I believe it and I know

I dare not clip your wings
I'll see what tomorrow brings
While you say you'd rather stay
I'll send you on your way
