"If You Call"

I been layin
Alone for hours
But I haven't slept at all
These eyes are closed
But I'm listening
For your call(2x)
These feet, too tired for walking
And these knees too weak to crawl
But these arms are strong enough to hold you
If you call (2x)
Am I dead
Or am I living
I feel no blood in these veins

But I could live, live and die like this forever
If I know I'll taste your lips again
Doctor, doctor
Come cut my heart out
Cause it hardly ohh beats at all
But please, please leave a little potion
Just in case my baby calls
Just in case ohh my baby calls
If you call (3x)
