Walking with You is not without hazards
Tripping's this traveler's curse
The price paid for fallin' is more than my stumble
In a world that is watching and waitin' for worst

But I listened when You said to go
And I set out in spite of my fears
I brought truth mixed with my imperfections
And the question of what to say when I got here
And now that I'm here

Should I tell them that You are the one who has made me
And saved me to set up a home there inside
Should I tell them that I am
A perfect example of all You can do with a life
What should I say to them, what if I'm failing them?
What should I tell them tonight?

Don't get me wrong, I'm thankful to be here
With this song to sing and a spotlight on me
But lately I'm wondering if You are mistaken
If You're seein' all of me there is to see

But on every face I detect
These same questions I've posed to you Like "Do You speak through the imperfect
Or are we too dirty for Your light to get through?"
I want Your light to get through

Should I tell them that You are the one who has made
me
And saved me to set up a home there inside
Should I tell them that I am
A perfect example of all You can do with a life
What should I say to them, what if I'm failing them?
What should I tell them

They're thirsty but my cup is empty, Lord
Come and meet me here in this place
'Cause I'm unashamed, but I'm unprepared
And I'm just plain afraid

Should I tell them that You are the one who has made
me
And saved me to set up a home there inside
Should I tell them that I am
A perfect example of all You can do with a life

Should I tell them that You are the one who has made
me
And saved me to set up a home there inside
Should I tell them that I am
A perfect example of all You can do with a life

What should I say to them, what if I'm failing them?
What should I say to them, what if I'm failing them?
What should I tell them tonight?
