Verse 1:

F# G#m7 F# G#m A#m B C#
Haven't you heard about the guy known as The Cheater
F# G#m7
He'll take your girl and then he'll lie and he'll F# G#m A#m B C# mistreat her ////
G#m A#m
It seems every day now
B C#
You hear people say now

Chorus:

F#maj7 G#m7 [major 7th implied by vocal harmonies]
Look out for The Cheater
F#maj7 G#m7 C#7
Make way for the fool-hearted clown
F#maj7 G#m7
Look out for The Cheater
F# D#m B D#m [N.C.]
He's gonna build you up just to let you down

Verse 2:

All of you girls had better stay inside your door now
He'll hurt you once, then turn around and hurt you some more now
While he's out betrayin'
You'll hear people sayin'

[repeat chorus]

Bridge:

From the liner notes to the _Look Out For The Cheater_
LP:

There's a big hullabaloo coming from MUSICLAND, U.S.A.! ... and it's all coming from BOB KUBAN AND THE IN-MEN, the most exciting musical sound to come along in all my eight years as producer and emcee of the 'St. Louis Hop' television dance show.

BOB KUBAN, leader of this big-band sound, is a young, handsome instrumental music instructor at Bishop Du Bourg High School and is Du Bourg's first winner of the much coveted _John Philip Sousa Award_!

Here's the inside on the IN-MEN: GREG HOELTZEL, a Washington University student, plays the organ; MIKE KRENSKI, St. Louis University student, is bass player and composer; brass and reeds are expertly handled by PAT
HIXON, HARRY SIMON, and SKIP WEISSER, all attending
St. Louis Institute
Of Music; talented KEN SMITH is lead guitarist; and,

according to the girls, lead vocalist [Sir!] WALTER SCOTT 'sings adorably!' [According to one of the back cover photos, Kuban himself played drums - AWR]

This album contains some of the brightest sounds I have heard in this new generation. I know you'll appreciate this fresh, long-awaited
versatile group -- they'll be musical stars for years to come!

Russ Carter Producer/Emcee
KSD-TV/Channel 5

P.S.: The IN-MEN and their producer, Mel Friedman, asked me to make public their gratitude to Al Bussen, skillful sound engineer, Technisonic Studios, Inc., St. Louis.
