i'm nothing,
nothing you can love
nothing that can live
can't live without you
you're everything
everything i can't love everything that must live must live without me
i'm lost
forever lost
in this dirty life
forever sad
forever alone
forever forgotten
looking at you
you, so beautifull you
so gentle
so pure
so free
i'd die for you
i'll die without you
and i'll keep your smile in my broken mind and spill my blood all over the place
