You tell me you don't love me and you say you never will You're going to find another man, to give you that thrill But that's not what you said last night, that's not what you said last night
That's not what you said last night, when we turned off the bedroom light

You tell me I don't please you and you're tired of trying You tell me to hit the road, now I'm standin' here cryin'
Not what you said last night, that's not what you said
last night
That's not what you said last night, I thought everything was alright

Well double-dealing mama, you won't play me straight Say one thing early, something else late
last night
That's not what you said last night and I didn't come here to fight

That's not what you said, not what you said, not what you said last night
you said last night
you said last night
