Were just two kids thinking dreams are real were just to punks deep in synch , you see trying to find our way in this world
so starry-eyed!

Will it break my heart in two
To sacrifice you?
Will it change my whole life trough
To sacrifice
To sacrifice you?

No need for words; I can read your mind
Fear makes us see who we really are Pretending to be far worse than the rest
So starry-eyed!

Will it break my heart in two
To sacrifice you?
Will it change my whole life trough
To sacrifice
To sacrifice you?

Angels glowing - theyre not dead
No deceit means no regrets
Dreams are colored blue and red
Just like puddles i have bled
Will it break my heart in two?

Will it break my heart in two
To sacrifice you?
Will it change my whole life trough
To sacrifice
To sacrifice you?
