Boys don't cry over petty shit, petty shit
Boys don't even cry over big shit, right?
And boys never show their emotions in public
But boys can be sad on the inside

My heart told me "please take your time
Let me have this one for a while
Let me stay close to hers, let our beats synchronize
Until you can't tell which heartbeat is hers or mine"

But when i saw you hanging out with other guys
I wasn't bothered, at least i didn't show it
And when i called you up and you just let it ring
I wasn't bothered, at least you never saw it

Boys don't cry over petty shit, petty shit
Boys don't even cry over big shit, right?
And boys never show their emotions in public
But boys can be sad on the inside

Don't say love is in our hearts
Say our hearts are in love, say our hearts are in love
At least mine is, wish i could say for sure
That hers was too

But when i saw you on the street with someone else
I wasn't bothered, at least i didn't show it
And when you couldn't even talk to me at all
I wasn't bothered, at least you never saw it

Boys don't cry over petty shit, petty shit
Boys don't even cry over big shit, right?
And boys never show their emotions in public
But boys can be sad on the inside
(x3)

Boys can be sad on the inside
(repeat)
