(Di Chiara - Camusso)

In a place that you don't know
Someone's waiting for you
Can't you hear them laugh
Every time you close your eyes

They will be with you
Every time you'll look for them
They will cry with you
Every time
Every time you'll scream for them

They can fly in soap bubbles
Close your eyes and drink your tears!
Don't scream in front of them
Because they can disappear
witches and fairies
are playing with your silver tears

In a place maybe you know
Someone is suffering for you
Can't you see her cry..
Every time you look her eyes
She will be with you
Every time look for her
She will cry with you
Every time..
Every time you'll scream for her!

She can feel your soap bubbles
Close your eyes and feel your tears
Don't scream in front of her
Because she can disappear
Witches and fairies
Are playing with some silver tears!

Shining shining shining are your tears
And I scream for a moment
I try to scream your name
Shining shining shining are my tears again..

They can fly in soap bubbles
Close your eyes and drink your tears
Don't scream in front of them
Because they can disappear
Witches and fairies
are playing with my silver tears
