How can you turn and walk away
Leaving me with so much left to say

These questions never answered
Growing in my like a cancer

You said you would never leave me
But now the liars say that you've deceived me
And I can't hear your voice above the crowd
So can you speak a little louder

You said you'd never let me go
In my darkest day I'm not alone

But now the liars say
I'm too far gone and you can't help me

Oh, you said you'd overcome
But now the liars have me on the run
And you said you would always hear my call
But can you hear my voice at all

(break)

Cause I said I would always love
And I don't wanna hear that I can't trust you

And I said I would always believe...

Oh you said you'd never leave me
But now the liars say that you've deceived me

And I can't hear your voice above the crowd
So can you speak a little louder

You said you'd never let me go...
