Breakin rocks all day on the avenue
It's hard to unearth anything that's true
Soon I'm gonna drop this jack and run
Returning to the wild where I'm from
There's miles of stone jackhammer in my hand
There's compromises I can't comprehend
Soon I'm gonna lose these rags and run
Returning to the wild where I'm from

Between the bricks you see the children play
The callouses get harder day by day
Tween the cracks you'll notice where I've gone
Returning to the wild where I belong
Soon I'm gonna lose these rags and run
Returning to the wild where I'm from
