I live where the sun sinks beneath frozen lakes
Where the vampire bites to mediate
And your worthless chauffeur speaks of your sins
Now that cigarette nights are drawing in

And pale skies ringed with red tail lights
Bring me documents from cigarette nights
And pale skies ringed with red tail lights
Bring me documents from cigarette nights

These people know me from some other location
Where daylight breaks in on another vaccination
And reservoirs lie poisoned with rejection
Black water, chasing my reflection

And pale skies ringed with red tail lights
Bring me documents from cigarette nights
And pale skies ringed with red tail lights
Bring me documents from cigarette nights

Cigarette nights - red tail lights
Cigarette nights - red tail lights
