Hey, hello, it's nice to see you again, I'm doin' fine, my friend

Kathy's right here and she's been filling me in
So if you don't mind, I'll stay for a while and just hold your hand

Someday soon, I'll see you smile once again
Someday soon, I'll hear your laughter and then
When we talk about old times, I know the sun will shine so bright
So I won't say goodbye, I'll just say goodnight

Hey, I know it's getting colder today, the weatherman say's it might rain
Your mother's ok but she could sure use some sleep
She can't understand, she says it just isn't fair
Why you're the first one to leave

Someday soon, I'll see you smile once again
Someday soon, I'll hear your laughter and then
When we talk about old times, I know the sun will shine so bright
So I won't say goodbye, I'll just say goodnight

If you could only see the love surrounding you and me
I know you feel it deep inside, so I'll tell myself there's no need to cry

Someday soon, I'll see you smile once again
Someday soon, I'll hear your laughter and then
When we talk about old times, I know the sun will shine so bright
So I won't say goodbye, I'll just say goodnight.
