(Albert Hammond/Shelly Peiken)

Love is on the way.

Hold a diamond in your hand, love it like no other.
I'd be alighted in my hair, don't ever lose the fate when I say.
I'll be there beside you to comfort and guide you.

Love to love you, babe.
Won't stop, oh, cause something's got so natural.
I'll be there before you know, love is on the way.
Hold on, real and tight, keep that candle burning
bright.
Everything will be alright, love is on the way.

I haven't run away from you, true but love goes stronger.
Real close to look at you, hold it in your hands and have a chance
To be there together, forever and ever.

Love to love you, babe.
Won't stop, oh, cause something's got so natural.
I'll be there before you know, love is on the way.
Hold on, real and tight, keep that candle burning
bright.
Everything will be alright, love is on the way.

Something's that love, oh, so beautiful
And darling, oh, darling, no one can love you more, that's for sure.

I'll be there beside you to comfort and guide you.

Love to love you, babe.
Won't stop, oh, cause something's got so natural.
I'll be there before you know, love is on the way.
Hold on, real and tight, keep that candle burning
bright.
Everything will be alright, love is on the way.

Won't stop, oh, cause something's got so natural.
I'll be there before you know, love is on the way.
Hold on, real and tight, keep that candle burning
bright.

Everything will be alright, love is on the way.

Won't stop, oh, cause something's got so natural.
I'll be there before you know, love is on the way.
Hold on, real and tight, keep that candle burning
bright.

Everything will be alright, love is on the way.

Won't stop, oh, cause something's got so natural.
I'll be there before you know, love is on the way.
Hold on, real and tight, keep that candle burning
bright.

Everything will be alright, love is on the way.
