Uh

Yeah

What up girl?

Girl girl girl

You know I been watching you all night long

Girl girl girl

I know you got your own thing going on

I can't help but think about what's on your mind

Wanna know what it would take to get inside

You you you

Got the whole spot wondering 'bout who you are

You you you

Can have your pick but I'm the one you want

So I'm 'bout to make my way down to the floor

'Cause I don't think I can hold it back no more

'Cause you're just mind blowing, hypnotizing, head
down to your toes

The way your hands flowing down your back

Watch that body go

It's electric lectric lectric electric

You're so electric lectric lectric electric

Girl girl girl

You're looking so fine and I bet that you know (you know)

Girl girl girl

Everything about you is all I want

The way you working it, girl I can tell you're bad

It drives me crazy when you lick your lips like that

Oh

'Cause you're just mind blowing, hypnotizing, head
down to your toes

The way your hands flowing down your back

Watch that body go

It's electric lectric lectric electric

You're so electric lectric lectric electric

Electrify me, with that body

Electrify me, with that body
Electrify me, with that body
Electrify me

'Cause you're just mind blowing, hypnotizing, head
down to your toes
The way your hands flowing down your back
Watch that body go
It's electric lectric lectric electric
You're so electric lectric lectric electric

'Cause you're just mind blowing, hypnotizing, head
down to your toes
The way your hands flowing down your back
Watch that body go
It's electric lectric lectric electric
You're so electric lectric lectric electric

So electric
So electric
So electric
So electric
