Another day has slipped away
And now I feel it's time to say whats on my mind
Why did it seem so hard
To tell you what's been in my heart

Every time I hear your voice the angels sing,
Girl I'm here to offer you my soul to keep
I wanna take you in my arms
And I want you to stay
Cause i need you here tonight love of my life yeah baby...

Something so real opened my eyes
And now I see there's not much time...much precious time
Swept away as the tears roll down tears of joy for the love I found

Every time I hear your voice the angels sing,

Girl I'm here to offer you my soul to keep
I wanna take you in my arms
And I want you to stay
Cause i need you here tonight love of my life

Now I've finally figured out what this world is all about
And now's the time to live our lives forever baby...
Cause I need you here tonight.

Every time I hear your voice the angels sing,
Girl I'm here to offer you my soul to keep
I wanna take you in my arms
And I want you to stay Cause I need you here tonight love of my life...love of my life
