just close your eyes
fall fast asleep
i'm by your side
there in your dreams i tuck you in you smile at me
the best of friends yeah you and me

you'll always be my little man the day will come you'll leave this nest no matter where you choose to fly I'll still sing you this lullaby

i look at you you're growing tall
time slips away yeah from us all so i hold on i won't let go and when you leave i hope you know

no matter where you choose to fly

and there'll be times when you make mistakes yeah but that's Ok cos we all do (cos we all do) but makes no different cos i won't change my love for you

no matter where you choose to fly
