I know your little secret
Or do you kiss and tell?

Will you taught me in the morning
Or will you be forever?

Will I wait by the phone
- no answer -

will you tell all your friends about her?

Will I have you for my own
Or just when we're alone
Like your undercover lover

Will you warmly hold me tight
When you win you bet at night
But your undercover lover

Everybody's talking
Tellin me to run
But I cant hear them whispers?
Look at what you've done

Are we there, in your dreams together
Will you hold on to me forever

Will I have you for my own
Or just when we're alone
Like your undercover lover

I know your little secret
I know your little secret

Will you warmly hold me tight
When you win you bet at night
But your undercover lover
Will you tell me im the one
Or am I just for fun
Like your undercover lover

And will you love that leave

Leave me down here on my knees
Like your undercover lover

I don't know if i can doing this
There is just something about you
I just cant let go

I know your little secret
I know your little secret

Will I have you for my own
Or just when we're alone
Like your undercover lover

Will you warmly hold me tight
When you win you bet at night
But your undercover lover

Will you tell me im the one
Or am I just for fun
Like your undercover lover

And will you love that leave
Leave me down here on my knees

I know your little secret
I know your little secret
