How could something that means so much to me,
Mean so little to you?
I can't believe you could walk away,
Leave this so easily.
Blinded by the stars,
In your fucking eyes!

I'll tear them out and replace with something real!
Teach you to feel,
How I fucking feel!
I'll tear them out and replace with something real!

So tell me how does it feel,
To fuck yourself up?
So tell me how does it feel,
To fuck yourself up?
So tell me

How could something that means so much to me,
Mean so little to you?
I can't believe you could walk away,
Leave this so easily.
Blinded by the stars.

So follow,
Please follow me.
Through this just take my hand.
So follow,
Please follow me.
Through this just take my hand.
So follow please follow me,
Through this just take my hand,
Set yourself free!

Set yourself free!
