Looking for a colour in a shade of grey
Looking for love in a drop of rain
Trying to find change from the old mundane
Everything I do just feels the same

Spending my life out in the desert
Been gone so long feels like forever

I just want to be even closer to you
I just want to be even closer
I am yours
You can have all of me, anything, everything
I just want to be even closer

(Closer, closer)

A day without you is a thousand years
A day without you is a million tears
Tell me why do I run when I am in fear?
Why do I run when you are so near?

Been spending my life out in the weather
Been gone so long and I need some shelter

I just want to be even closer to you
I just want to be even closer
I am yours
You can have all of me, anything, everything
I just want to be even closer

Wherever you go
Wherever you are
I just want to be there with you

I just want to be closer to you
I just want to be closer
I am yours
You can have all of me, anything, everything
I just want to be even closer
(x2)

(Closer, closer)

Looking for a colour in a shade of grey
Looking for love in a drop of rain...
