sometimes a man who has to get everything taken away before he realizes just how good he's got it made please be there for what you got cause if your not it just might pass you on by and you will find yourself sound in there, asking the question "why?"
what would i do if i did not love you and what would i say if i had no one to say it to i would be lonely without you now i don't know how long i'll be around i'm traveling from town to town let me take a moment at least just how i feel inside and oh my friends it been real and i love you all so no matter where i go its in my heart to hold you close

and what would i say if i had no one to say it to
what would i do if i did not have you and what would i say if i had no one to say say it to i would be i would be so lonely without you and what would i do if did not have you what would i say if i had no one to say it to
