Yeah, uh, uh!
You might think it all alone
That none else could ever know the fear you hold inside you
But look around and you will find
That everybody hides their eyes
In just the same way you do!

Somehow you smile, when you wanna cry
Cary on like a second you just wanna die
Still for now, but you never get up, now!
You know what it is!
..in the moment of the loneliest,.
But you know you were doing it all over again
You love me know, and I'll tell you,
Cause that's when it's meant to be!

Chorus:
Human, everybody gets broken
Make it out in the open
I put mercy on
Every time that you let inside your heart
Falling, ,your bleeding
Scared to show what you were feeling
Just breath in
That's how you know what it means to feel alive!

I remember how it felt
To get the pieces of myself
I cried so hard, my heart ached
But I didn't know this love
And finally came along
Without the scars that made me who I am

Pain is a give it's a nature of life
The love you and I had
Was just small as the time was worth it
,and when you find yourself
..doesn't mean that you're weak,
Doesn't mean you're not strong
..don't bring us down, baby, you need to go!

Chorus:
Human, everybody gets broken
Make it out in the open
I put mercy on
Every time that you let inside your heart
Falling, cut my breast ,your bleeding
Scared to show what you were feeling
Just breath in
That's how you know what it means to feel alive!

,when you're down and you wanna,
More tears can you cry cause it's nothing left there but hurt and pain
Somehow you find the strength to start over!
Let 'em all feel the pain that,
What you love, what you gain
That's what makes you who you are!
Don't give up, hold on!

Chorus:
Human, everybody gets broken
Make it out in the open
I put mercy on
Every time that you let inside your heart
Falling, ,your bleeding
Scared to show what you were feeling
Just breath in
That's how you know what it means to feel alive!
