Cold outside but I don't blame the weather
No one's calling, no one's at the door
But I can't stay inside all day
Blinds roll to the floor

There's no blue sky in my town lately
Everybody looks at the ground
And where I am is making me hazy
But the sun never looked so pretty going down

It ain't right, it feels like forever
So many changes, I stopped keeping score
But if you want me you know where I will be
I don't get out much anymore

There's no blue sky in my town lately
Everybody looks at the ground
I've been distracted and dulled out, crazy
But the sun never looked so pretty going down
The sun never looked so pretty going down

Blue sky, come find me
I'm waiting, mmm

The sun never looked so pretty
Sun never looked so pretty
Sun never looked so pretty

Cloud and rain, smoke and smog here
Won't see too many stars tonight
Biding time, I'm waiting on the sunset
One last glance of gold, then goodbye

There's no blue sky in my town lately
Everybody looks at the ground
And where I am is making me hazy
But the sun never looked so pretty going down

There's no blue sky in my town lately
Everybody looks at the ground
I've been distracted and dulled out, crazy
But the sun never looked so pretty going down

The sun never looked so pretty going down

The sun never looked so pretty

The sun never looked so pretty
