I fell asleep about 12:30 last night
With the remote held in my hand
I drifted off and I could see the light
I was dreaming of the promised land
I was dreaming of the promised land

Oh, you know I had a dream last night
It's all a little foggy in my head
Oh Lord, something about brotherhood and love of all mankind
I spoke with an angel
I spoke with an angel
But I can't remember what she said

You know as people we are powerless
We live our lives in any old way
Your people, my people, we're all God's people
And I don't guess it matters anyway
I don't guess it matters anyway

And you know I had a dream last night
But it's all a little foggy in my head
Oh Lord, something about brotherhood and love of all
mankind
I spoke with an angel
I spoke with an angel
But I can't remember what she said

I fell asleep about 12:30 last night
And I woke to the sound of the rounds of a .45
And as the ambulance pulled away, I heard a neighbor way
So young and so full of life
So young and so full of life
So young and so full of life

And you know I had a dream last night
But it's all a little foggy in my head
Oh Lord, something about brotherhood and love, love of all mankind
I spoke with an angel
I spoke with an angel

I spoke with an angel

But I can't remember what she said

No, I can't remember what she said
