My time is your time
After all that you've been through
Can you hear me calling you
And this line that I'm walking time
It's pointing write to you
I'm living my life with you

So call on me, I'll guard myself
Just to wait and see
I'll start a brand new now
This time is the last time for me

But my life is in your hands
You can take me all the way yeah
And this religion in war torn lands
The world has seen its better days

So call on me, I'll guard myself
Just to wait and see
I'll start a brand new now
This time is the last time for me, yeah

You call on me, I'll just wait and see
I'll start a brand new now
This time is the last time for me
This time is the last time for me
This time is the last time for me
