You were everything to me
I saw the stars in your eyes
You take my hand and take the time
To keep me out of the rain
To take away the pain.

I'd never seen you cry before tonight
And I won't believe the words I'll be fine
I'd never seen you break
It was just too much to take

'Cause you were strong
You were someone to lean on
I'd never seen you cry
Maybe I was wrong.

To see you fall
Was something I couldn't bare at all
No it wasn't hard to see,
That you were meant to be
Invincible to me.
