Stop, you know you've said too much
I've taken more than enough
Cause I've tried it before
And I'll try it again
Now we're standing on the edge

So before we take the fall
And before we lose the faith
Tell me do you still recall
What we said that day

Hello hello, hello, hello, hello
Remember when we said hello
One word set the feeling in motion
So long ago
Hello, hello, hello, hello
Remember when we said hello
So before we let this go
Remember when we said hello

So, now we're walking this knife's edge
And I question every step
Is it all in my mind am I wasting my time
Is it me trying once again?

Cause I've taken all I can
But this ain't over yet
And you've got to understand
This don't have to be the end

Hello hello, hello, hello, hello
Remember when we said hello
One word set the feeling in motion
So long ago
Hello, hello, hello, hello
Remember when we said hello
So before we let this go
Remember when we said hello

I could leave you here right now
Don't be fooled I'll shut you out

But my heart is open wide
Cause I need you baby
And I've fallen deeper now
But I'll climb back up somehow
Cause I need you babe I said stop

Hello hello, hello, hello, hello
Remember when we said hello
One word set the feeling in motion
So long ago
Hello, hello, hello, hello
Remember when we said hello
So before we let this go
Remember when we said hello
