My heart it aches
Run away run away now
These chains won't break
Ease my pain ease my pain now

I can see the traces of you here right in my mind
But I can't stop you know I think about you all the time

And I keep on saying everything's gonna change
But I keep on wishing every second away
It hurts sometimes I don't know why
These feelings won't fade
But I know it won't be the same
Till I see you again
Till I see you again

I'm lost in time
No I can't find my way out
I need a sign
That you'll come back to me now

I can see the traces of you here right in my mind
Tell me I don't have to sleep alone for one more lonely night

And I keep on saying everything's gonna change
But I keep on wishing every second away
It hurts sometimes I don't know why
These feelings won't fade
But I know it won't be the same
Till I see you again
Till I see you again

And I can't fight it
And I won't hide it
So I'll surrender to it now
You know I need you
But I know it's gotta be this way

And I keep on saying everything's gonna change
But I keep on wishing every second away

It hurts sometimes I don't know why
These feelings won't fade
But I know it won't be the same
Till I see you again

And I keep on saying everything's gonna change
But I keep on wishing every second away
It hurts sometimes I don't know why
These feelings won't fade
But I know it won't be the same
Till I see you again
Till I see you again
